The Radius Flexx™ Reception Desk is made entirely from seamless, bleach cleanable Corian® solid surface for unmatched hygiene, cleanability and long-term durability. Its sleek, curved profile and soft radius edges are designed to promote a calm and welcoming first impression.

The modular design allows for multiple configurations and the ability to link desks together to accommodate varying space or capacity requirements. Seamless solid surfaces also support infection control and can be easily renewed over time, helping the desk maintain a like-new appearance and welcoming aesthetic, while ensuring long-term value. Ideal for reception, check-in, and security areas in healthcare, aviation, workplace and other public-facing spaces.

- Made with Corian® solid surface
- Bleach cleanable
- Seamless & nonporous
- GREENGUARD® to resist mold, virus & bacteria growth
- Easy to clean
- Impact, scratch & chip resistant
- Modular left, right and center configurations.
- Available in a range of Corian® solid surface colors
